

Holborn, surveyed by Richard Rider, 1640

All that forehous with the yards garden and back Tenement therevnto belonging late the Lands of Samuell Lese deceased in Holborne London,

Item a little Celler 7 foote square vnder the entry./

Item in the second story over the shopp, one chamber backward with a Chimney in it, conteyninge in breadth 9 foote  $\frac{1}{2}$  and in Length 17 foote & one inch./

Item a little Buttery at the stayres head./

Item a little Kitchin with a Chimney therein Conteyninge 7 foote and two inches in breadth and 13 foote and a half in length./

Item one Chamber forward next the streete with a Chimney therein conteyninge 11 foote and one inch in breadth, and 13 foote and one inch in length

Item in the Third Story one Garrett forward cont: 15 foote and 3 inches in length, and 15 foote in breadth

Item one middle garrett conteyninge Nyne foote square

Item on Back garrett conteyninge 10 foote in length, and 6 foote in breadth./

Item in the second story backward, one chamber with a chimney therein, part thereof lyinge over the Palor, and part thereof over the kitchin, conteyning in Length 17 foote and 7 inches, and in breadth from the window to the dore, 9 foote &  $\frac{1}{2}$  And from the dore, to the dore there of the next roome 8 foote and 9 inches./

Item one chamber, with a chimney therein lyinge over part of the kitchin, conteyninge in length 10 foote, and in breadth 9 foote & 2 inches./

Item in the Third story the garrett there conteyninge 18 foote in length, and 12 foote in breadth./

Item in the Little back Tenement one celler Cont: 9 foote in length and 8 foote in breadth./

Item in the second story one chamber with a chimney therein cont: 9 foote in length, and 8 foote and  $\frac{1}{2}$  in breadth./

Item in the Third story one chamber conteyninge 9 foote in length, and eigh foote &  $\frac{1}{2}$  in breadth ./